2016 No. 23.

The Accountants Regulations, 2016.

(Under section 53 of the Accountants Act, 2013)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred on the Minister responsible for finance by section 53 of the Accountants Act, 2013 and on the recommendation of the Council, these Regulations are made this 15th day of February, 2016.

PART I—PRELIMINARY

1. Title.

These Regulations may be cited as the Accountants Regulations, 2016.

2. Interpretation.

In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

“Act” means the Accountants Act, 2013;

“electronic form” includes, telephonic, facsimile and email transmissions, and publication on the internet;

“registered address” means the principal place of business registered with the Institute, by a member of the Institute.

PART II—MEMBERSHIP

3. Enrolment of members.

(1) The Council may require a person who applies to be enrolled as a member, to produce such evidence as the Council may require, to determine the suitability of the applicant to be enrolled as a member of the Institute.

(2) A person who ceases to be a member of the Institute, shall return the certificate of enrolment to the Institute, within twenty one days of ceasing to be a member.

4. Practical training.

(1) A person who wishes to be enrolled as a full member of the Institute shall obtain suitable practical training of at least three years, in at least three of the technical fields and in all the non-technical fields specified in Parts I and II, respectively, of Schedule 1 of these Regulations.

(2) The Council may, where necessary, accept any other experience as satisfying the requirement for practical training.

(3) The Council may reduce or waive the period required for practical training where—

- (a) the difference between the period of the practical training and the prescribed period is minimal;
- (b) the requirements of the practical training requirement are met before the expiry of the prescribed period; or
- (c) due to circumstances beyond the control of the applicant, the applicant does not meet the prescribed requirements.

(4) The required practical training shall be obtained under the supervision of a member of the Institute or at an organisation approved by the Council.

(5) The record of the practical training of a person who wishes to be enrolled a full member of the Institute, shall be submitted with the application for enrolment.

5. Continuing professional development.

(1) A member of the Institute shall undertake continuing professional development as prescribed in Schedule 2 to these Regulations.

(2) Subject to sub regulation (1), where a member does not, without any reasonable or justifiable cause, undertake continuing professional development, the Council shall refer the matter to the disciplinary committee for appropriate action.

6. Roll of members.

The roll of the members of the Institute shall state the full name of a member, the membership number, the date of enrolment, the address of the member and any other details necessary for the record of the member.

7. Retired members.

(1) A full member or an associate member who wishes to cease practising accountancy and who wishes to become a retired member, may apply to the Council to be registered as a retired member.

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, where a member who retires has an ongoing complaint before the disciplinary committee or the disciplinary appeals committee, against him or her, at the time of retirement, the complaint against the member shall continue as if that person was still a full member or an associate member of the Institute.

(3) A retired member who wishes to be reinstated as a full member or an associate member of the Institute shall make an application to the Council and pay the prescribed fees.

8. Honorary members.

The Council may award honorary membership to a person who makes an outstanding contribution to the field of accountancy.

- (b) the votes shall be counted or verified by the Elections Committee at least three days before the annual general meeting at a place and time determined by the returning officer.

(4) The results of the elections shall be announced by the returning officer, to the annual general meeting, as soon as the tallying process is completed and certified by the Elections Committee.

(5) For the purposes of determining the winning candidate at an election, the results certified under subregulation (3) shall be conclusive.

(6) A candidate may attend or appoint a representative to witness the process of counting and verifying the votes.

(7) A candidate who gains a simple majority at an election shall be declared winner.

(8) In case of a tie in the highest votes cast for an office of the Council, the candidates whose votes tie shall be subjected to another election.

(9) At least three of the seven members of the Council elected at the meeting shall be women.

15. Tallying of results.

(1) The Elections Committee may appoint other paid up members of the Institute to assist the Elections Committee in tallying the results of the elections.

(2) The returning officer shall notify the annual general meeting of the persons appointed to assist in the tallying of results.

16. Election of the president and vice president.

(1) The returning officer shall preside over the election of the president and vice president of the Institute.

(2) The returning officer shall call for nominations for the offices of president and vice president, seven days before the meeting of the Council at which the election is to take place.

(3) The receipt of nominations for president and vice president shall close three days before the meeting of the Council.

(4) The returning officer shall announce the names of the candidates for the posts of president and vice president at the meeting of the Council and conduct the elections.

(5) Voting for the president and vice president, shall be by secret ballot.

(6) The returning officer shall count the votes and announce the results.

(7) In case of a tie in the highest votes cast for an office, the candidates whose votes tie shall be subjected to another election.

(8) The returning officer shall declare the persons elected as president and vice president at the meeting and invite the president to chair the meeting.

(9) Any vacancy in the office of the president or vice president shall be filled at the next meeting of the Council following the occurrence of the vacancy.

17. Removal of the president and vice president.

(1) The Council may, by a resolution passed by not less than eight members of the Council, remove from office the president or vice-president.

(2) A person removed from the office of the president or vice president shall remain a member of the Council.

PART IV—MEETINGS OF THE COUNCIL

18. Meetings of the Council.

(1) The president or, in the absence of the president, the vice president shall preside at the meetings of the Council and in case of the absence of both the president and the vice president, the members present shall select one of the members present to preside.

(2) The Council shall meet as often as the business of the Council requires or as may be agreed by members of the Council, but the Council shall meet at least once every three months.

(3) A meeting of the Council may be convened at any time, by the president, on the advice of the secretary.

(4) The president shall convene a special meeting of the Council where a request signed by at least four members of the Council, is made to the secretary.

(5) The Council shall meet at a time and place that may be determined by the members of the Council.

(6) The Council shall be deemed to meet if the members of the Council are linked by conference telephone, conference video link or other communication equipment that allows them to hear and speak to each other without meeting physically.

(7) The meeting under sub-regulation (6) shall be deemed to be held at the place where the chairperson of the meeting is.

(8) Five members of the Council shall form a quorum.

(9) For the purposes of meetings and making decisions, the Council shall be deemed to be duly constituted notwithstanding any vacancy in the membership.

19. Notice of meetings of the Council.

(1) The notice of a meeting of the Council shall be communicated in writing to each member of the Council, at least seven days before the date of the meeting.

(2) The notice shall indicate the business to be transacted at the meeting.

(3) The notice shall be deemed to have been communicated to a member, if the records of the secretary indicate so, unless the contrary is shown.

(4) The validity of the proceedings of the meeting shall not be affected where a member does not receive the notice of the meeting.

(5) Where the president, or in the absence of the president the vice president approves, the notice of a meeting may be for a shorter period, than the period prescribed in sub-regulation (1).

20. Adjournment of meetings of the Council.

(1) The president or a person who presides at a meeting may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting of the Council.

(2) The meeting of the Council held after the adjourned meeting shall deliberate upon the matters that were not considered at the adjourned meeting and may discuss other matters.

(3) Where new matters specified in sub-regulation (2) are to be discussed at a subsequent meeting, the secretary shall communicate a notice of the meeting to the members of the Council.

21. Procedure at meetings of the Council.

(1) A decision of the Council shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting, and in the case of equality of votes, the chairperson shall have a casting vote.

(2) A member of the Council who has any personal interest in a matter being considered by the Council shall, as soon as possible, disclose the nature of his or her interest to the Council and unless the Council decides otherwise he or she shall not deliberate in that matter.

(3) Where a meeting of the Council is held in accordance with regulation 18 (6), the decisions made shall be confirmed at the next meeting of the Council.

(4) The secretary shall record the minutes of the deliberations of a meeting of the Council and the minutes shall be approved by the members and signed by the chairperson and the secretary at the next meeting of the Council.

(5) Subject to these regulations, the Council shall regulate its own procedures.

PART V—MEETINGS OF THE INSTITUTE

22. Presiding at meetings of the Institute.

(1) The president or, in the absence of the president, the vice president shall preside at the meetings of the Institute.

(2) In the absence of the president and the vice president, the members of the Council present shall elect one of the members of the Council to preside at the meeting.

(3) Where the other members of the Council are not present at the meeting of the Institute or where all the members of the Council present decline to preside at the meeting, the full members present shall elect one of their number to preside at the meeting.

23. Meeting at more than one place.

(1) A meeting of the Institute may be held by linking the members by conference telephone, conference video link or other communication equipment that allows them to hear and speak to each other without meeting physically.

(2) A meeting held in accordance with sub-regulation (1) shall be deemed to be duly constituted and its proceedings valid where the chairperson of the meeting is satisfied that the members attending at the principal meeting place and the other places where the meeting is convened, are able to communicate and participate in the business for which the meeting is convened.

(3) For the purposes of this regulation, the principal meeting place shall be the place at which the chairperson is present and the meeting shall be deemed to take place at the principal meeting place.

24. Adjournment of meetings.

(1) The chairperson of a meeting may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting of the Institute.

(2) The meeting of the Institute held after the adjourned meeting shall deliberate upon only the matters that were not considered at the adjourned meeting.

(3) A meeting to be held to consider matters that were not considered at a meeting that is adjourned shall not require communication of a notice of that meeting to the members except where the previous meeting so decided.

25. Voting on matters other than elections.

(1) Only paid up, full members of the Institute are entitled to vote at a meeting of the Institute and every full member shall have one vote.

(2) Every question proposed at any meeting of the Institute shall be determined by a simple majority of the members present and voting, and in case of equality of votes the chairperson shall have a casting vote.

(3) Voting shall be conducted in the manner determined by the chairperson of the meeting.

(4) The chairperson of a meeting shall declare the resolution of a meeting on a matter and the resolution shall be recorded as such in the minutes of the meeting.
