1.0 ABOUT ICPAU

1.1 Establishment & Mandate

The Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Uganda (ICPAU) is the national Professional Accountancy Organisation. ICPAU was established in 1992 by the Accountants Act, Cap. 294.

The Institute is governed by a Council which is assisted by various committees including the Education and Research Committee, and the Public Accountants Examinations Board (PAEB) among others.

The functions of the Institute as prescribed by the Accountants Act, Cap. 294 are:

- (i) Regulate and maintain the standard of accountancy in Uganda.
- (ii) Prescribe and regulate the conduct of accountants and practising accountants in Uganda.

1.2 Vision

A globally recognised promoter of accountants for sustainable economies

1.3 Mission

To develop and regulate accountants for professional excellence and sustainable impact

1.4 Core Values

1.5 International Affiliations

The Institute is a member of the International Federation of Accountants (IFAC), the Pan African Federation of Accountants (PAFA), and the Association for Education Assessment in Africa (AEAA).

1.6 The Public Accountants Examinations Board

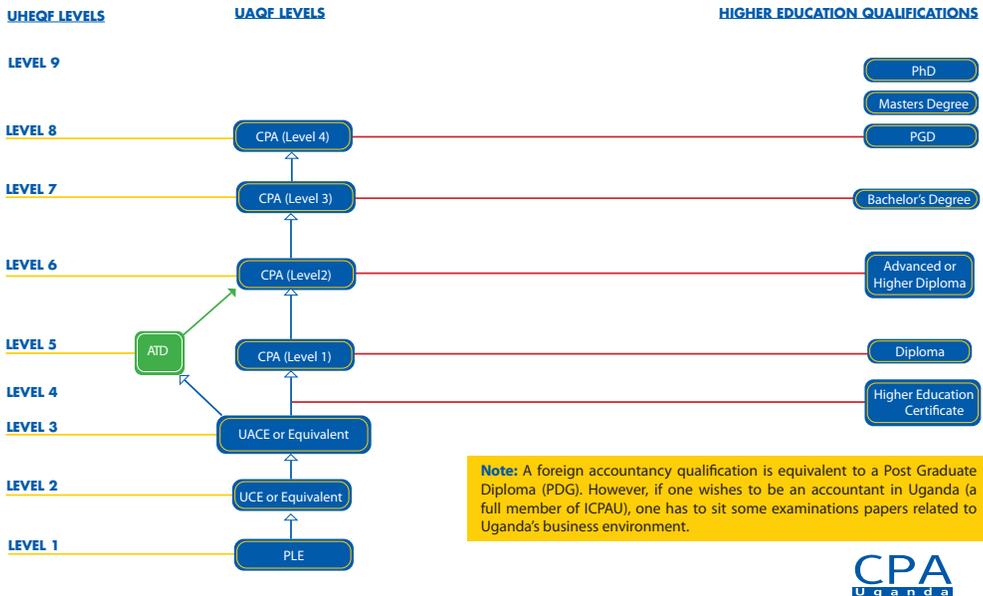

As part of the function of regulating and maintaining the standard of accountancy, ICPAU conducts examinations. This function is executed by the PAEB on behalf of the Council.

2.0 UGANDA ACCOUNTANCY QUALIFICATIONS FRAMEWORK

Pursuant to Section 4 of the Accountants Act, Cap. 294 which spells out ICPAU's mandate, ICPAU developed the Uganda Accountancy Qualifications Framework (UAQF) to show how the accountancy education and qualifications relate.

3.3 EXEMPTIONS

Exemptions may, on application, be granted to holders of recognised qualifications, on a subject-for-subject basis.

ICPAU continuously reviews the exemption eligibility for various qualifications whenever submitted by the awarding institution.

Exempted papers

- a) The exemptions are granted by the Institute on the assessment of detailed syllabuses of business-related courses and past examination papers submitted to ICPAU by the awarding institution.
- b) Exemptions are paid for and the cost is the same as the examination fee.
- c) Holders of FAQ will be required to pay a consolidated amount of Ushs 800,000 for exemptions. Holders of partial FAQ will be required to pay Ushs 125,000 per paper for Level II papers, and Ushs 135,000 per paper for Level III papers.

How to Apply for Exemptions

- i. Present your academic transcript to the ICPAU Student Engagement Officers for determination of eligibility.
- ii. If exemptions are approved, proceed to make payment for the exempted papers.
- iii. Log in to your ICPAU student portal and accept the approved exemptions.

Procedure for accepting exemptions

- Click “registration”, then exams/exemptions. A table will be displayed with the eligible exemptions.
- Accept them before proceeding to examinations and ignore if you do not have enough credit on your account.

5.		Auditing, Ethics & Assurance (P9)	Audit Practice & Assurance (P16)
6.		Taxation (P11)	Advanced Taxation (P17)

Note: The Institute reserves the right to vary or amend the progression rules and examinations regulations.

3.4.5 A candidate must complete level III to be eligible to register for level IV.

3.4.6 A candidate will be credited with each subject passed

Note: The following subjects too, may not be taken together at any one examinations diet because they are always timetabled together.

No.	Level I	Level II
1	Management & Information Systems (P4)	Financial Reporting (P7)
		Financial Management (P8)

3.5 PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE TRAINING

As required by the International Education Standards (IES) and the Accountants Act, Cap. 294, CPA students are expected to acquire practical training as a prerequisite for ICPAU membership enrolment. Upon completion of your CPA course, PET is a must before being enrolled as a full member of ICPAU.

This experience must be documented in the Practical Experience Training (PET) logbook on the ICPAU student portal.

To enrol for PET, visit the Practical Experience Training section on your ICPAU student portal.

3.5.1 Benefits of PET

- Sufficient acquisition of experience enhances your competence and proficiency
- Mentorship support
- Provision of a verifiable practical experience record

4.0 EXAMINATIONS

- 4.1 The CPA examinations will be held three times in 2026, i.e May, August and December.
- 4.2 Registration for examinations must be done online through the Institute’s website.
- 4.3 Examinations entries must be preceded by payment of the prescribed examination fees using the ICPAU ID. Use of the ICPAU ID is mandatory.
- 4.4 Payments shall be made in the bank or via mobile money. (See payment process 6.4)
- 4.5 The important dates for 2026 are as follows:

	Diet	Normal Registration	Late Registration	Examinations Dates	Centres
1.	May	5 January - 31 March 2026	1 - 15 April 2026	18 - 22 May 2026	All
2.	August	16 June - 31 July 2026	N/A	24 – 28 August 2026	Kampala
3.	December	15 - 30 September 2026	1-15 October 2026	7 – 11 December 2026	All

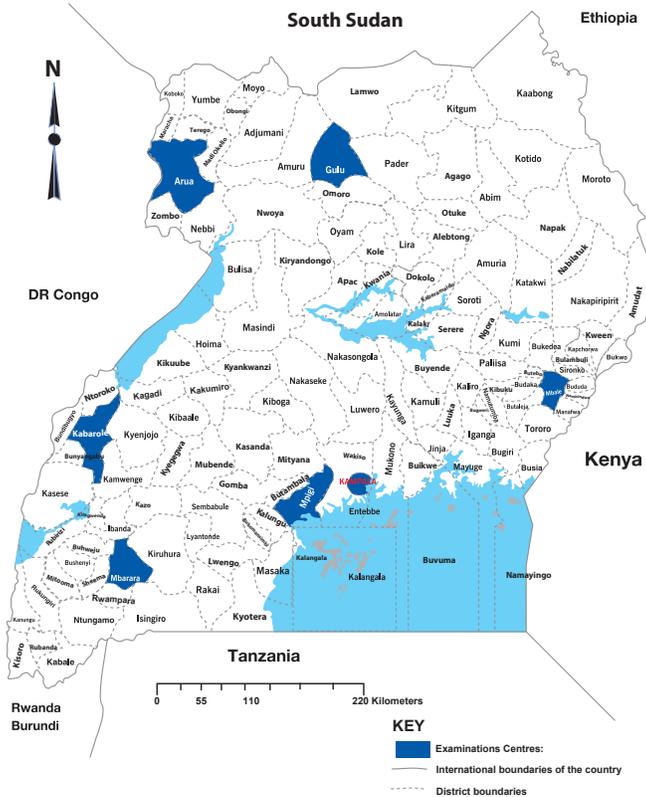

Note: Late registration applies to examinations, and to students who are already registered with the Institute (continuing students) ONLY. New students must register within the normal registration period.

- 4.6 Withdrawal of examinations entries is done online throughout the registration period (normal and late). Therefore, no withdrawal will be permitted after the registration deadline. Monies paid for examinations purposes can only be used for subsequent examinations diets or for settling any outstanding dues.

Any student who for one reason or the other fails to withdraw their examination entry/ entries within the registration period will forfeit the monies paid therefor.

4.7 Examinations Centres: Arua, Fort Portal, Gulu, Kampala, Mbale, Mbarara, and Nkozi.

A MAP OF UGANDA SHOWING EXAMINATION CENTRES

Note: The Nkozi centre is restricted to Uganda Martyrs University students

4.8 PASS MARK

4.8.1 The pass mark for each subject for all courses is 50%. Candidates will have the actual marks, alongside pass or fail, shown on their results slips.

5.0 CERTIFICATES & RESULTS SLIPS

- 5.1 The Institute no longer issues printed copies of results slips for levels I, II & III. Anyone who wants such a slip can print one from their ICPAU student portal. The slip can be verified by scanning the QR code thereon.
- 5.2 Results slips for level IV are printed and can only be obtained from the Secretariat's offices.
- 5.3 The Institute issues certificates for each level completed. The certificates are posted to the candidates using the postal address provided by the students on their profiles in the students' database.
- 5.4 Certificates (for finalists) can also be obtained from the Secretariat offices.

Maintaining a positive attitude, joining a focused discussion group, and getting adequate rest (eight hours) two weeks before the exam was key. Reviewing past papers and attending student webinars helped me understand the examiner's expectations. This should motivate fellow students that passing Public Financial Management is achievable; if others have done it, you can too.
